

FAST FACTS

ABOUT THE 2013-14 SCHOOL BUDGET

The Troy City School District has put forth a budget to voters that is:

- ▶ fiscally responsible and below tax cap
- ▶ maintains programs for students
- ▶ true to Troy's mission statement

Fast Facts:

- ▶ Proposed Budget: $97,428,554
- ▶ Proposed Tax Levy: 2.99% ($340,000 below tax cap)
- ▶ Strong advocacy efforts resulted in State Aid increase = $650,000
- ▶ No full-time employee layoffs; 5 positions reduced through retirements or attrition
- ▶ Cuts limited to 1 foreign language (3 languages remain) and Drug-Free Program in elementary schools (program remains in Middle School and High School)
- ▶ If the budget is not passed by voters, an additional $992,554 must be cut from the budget which would have a devastating impact on our students.
